

Ashley Rutkowski
Vice President
Sharecare, Inc.

Ashley Rutkowski has more than seventeen years of experience in sales, sales leadership, and product development. She currently leads the payer sales team for Sharecare, Inc. Ashley has spent her career focusing on better outcome for members. Sharecare's platform helps her continue her mission of making healthcare easier to understand while helping members become their best selves. Before joining Sharecare, she held sales and leadership development positions with several firms, most recently as SVP of Maestro Health, a thought leader and technology-driven, innovative TPA. She attended UW – Stevens Point and served our country as a member of the United States Air Force.